Eucharist (Joyce Rupp)

Eucharist comes in many forms.

Yesterday at dawn I stepped onto the round, white stones of Lake Michigan's vast shore;

I felt the deepest communion with all that exists, especially with the One who woos my heart.

I thought of my friend, Janet, holding out her open hands at Mass to receive the Gift she holds dear.

Today, as the retreat house bell calls the women to come receive, I stand before the full-bodied, incandescent maple tree, sunshine illuminating its golden leaves like a host held high in the blue sky.

I stand in creation's communion line, bow my head, open my heart, and receive Eucharist once again

Due to Government regulations all Masses except for funerals and weddings have been cancelled.

The Church remains open for private prayer.

Words of Wisdom

Just as a candle cannot burn without fire, we cannot live without a spiritual life.

Kindness is the language the blind can see and the deaf can hear.

Simplicity, patience, compassion: these are your greatest treasures.

PLEASE TAKE THIS HOME WITH YOU AS YOU LEAVE
