30th May 2021 Trinity Sunday

The Sun (Mary Oliver)

Have you ever seen anything in your life more wonderful than the way the sun, every evening, relaxed and easy, floats toward the horizon

and into the clouds or the hills, or the ruffled sea, and is gone—and how it slides again out of the blackness, every morning, on the other side of the world,

like a red flower streaming upward on its heavenly oils, say, on a morning in early summer, at its perfect imperial distance— and have you ever felt for anything such wild love— do you think there is anywhere, in any language, a word billowing enough for the pleasure that fills you, as the sun reaches out, as it warms you as you stand there, empty-handed—

or have you too turned from this world— or have you too gone crazy for power, for things?

Words of Wisdom

Let your gentleness be known to everyone. Our God is near.

Enjoy yourself it's later than you think.

The soul that sees beauty may sometimes walk alone.

PLEASE TAKE THIS HOME WITH YOU AS YOU LEAVE
