THE LAKE ISLE OF INNISFREE

W. B. Yeats (1865-1939)

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made:
Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honey-bee;
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow,
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings;
There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

The Archbishop has requested please an extra collection, Summer Dues, to help fund the clergy's salaries. There are some envelopes at the back of the church if you would like to take one and bring back next week. There is no need to put your name and address on the envelope. Many thanks.
