4th July 2021 Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM AURORA LEIGH

By Elizabeth Browning (1806-1861)

No lily-muffled hum of a summer-bee,
But finds some coupling with the spinning stars;
No pebble at your foot, but proves a sphere;
No chaffinch, but implies the cherubim;
And (glancing on my own thin, veined wrist)
In such a little tremor of the blood
The whole strong clamour of a vehement soul
Doth utter itself distinct. Earth's crammed with heaven,
And every common bush afire with God;
But only she who sees, takes off her shoes,
The rest sit round it and pick berries.

When you arise in the morning
think of what a privilege it is to be alive,
To think, to enjoy, to love.
