A note of Thanks

I wish to thank the children, parents, guardians, parish and community of Killinarden for their good wishes and gifts on the occasion of my retirement from Sacred Heart Junior School.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure working for 39 years as a teacher and Principal in the school.

I will always look back on my years in Killinarden with very fond memories. I wish the new Principal, Ms. Orla McLoughlin every success and happiness as she begins her role this week.

Kind regards
Martin Morris

Rice (Mary Oliver)

It grew in the black mud.

It grew under the tiger's orange paws.

Its stems thinner than candles, and as straight.

Its leaves like the feathers of egrets, but green.

The grains cresting, wanting to burst.

Oh, blood of the tiger.

I don't want you just to sit down at the table.

I don't want you just to eat, and be content.

I want you to walk out into the fields where the water is shining, and the rice has risen.

I want you to stand there, far from the white tablecloth.

I want you to fill your hands with the mud, like a blessing.

JOKES

Why did the banana go to the doctor? It was not peeling well!

Why are sports stadiums so cool? They are filled with fans!
