THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LOST

by David Wagoner (1926-2021)

Stand still. The trees ahead and bushes beside you
Are not lost. Wherever you are is called Here,
And you must treat it as a powerful stranger,
Must ask permission to know it and be known.

The forest breathes. Listen. It answers,
I have made this place around you.

If you leave it, you may come back again, saying Here.

No trees are the same to Raven.

No two branches are the same to Wren.

If what a tree or a bush does is lost on you,
You are surely lost. Stand still. The forest knows
Where you are. You must let it find you.

We would like to send our deepest condolences to the family and friends of Helen Cunningham whose funeral took place on Wednesday.
May Helen rest in peace.
