Keeping Quiet

by Pablo Neruda (1904-1979)
Translated from Spanish by Alistair Reid

Now we will count to twelve and we will all keep still.

For once on the face of the earth, let's not speak in any language;
let's stop for one second,
and not move our arms so much.

It would be an exotic moment without rush, without engines;
we would all be together
in a sudden strangeness.

Fishermen in the cold sea
would not harm whales
and the man gathering salt would look at his hurt hands.

Those who prepare green wars,
wars with gas, wars with fire,
victories with no survivors,
would put on clean clothes and walk about with their brothers in the shade, doing nothing.

What I want should not be confused with total inactivity.
Life is what it is about;
I want no truck with death.
