The Feast of Christ the King

Jesus Christ is not a King who lords it over people and keeps people at a distance. Jesus is the Servant King who came to call the lost and the most vulnerable. The one who came to help. He calls us into a relationship of friendship. We can approach him with confidence that we are accepted for who we are and how we are. We are promised his help, his grace every day of our lives.

What might I ask of our King today?

Sometimes it's only on looking back over time, a day, a week that we can spot God's grace at work.

As Christians we are called to imitate our King. We are called to serve others. We are called to reach out to those most in need as best we can.

What can I do to serve others this week?

The Sign of the Cross

This is a prayer, a request for God's blessing and a summary of our Faith.

In the name (notice this is singular for there is only one God)

Of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

(notice the equality among the three names which tells us there are three persons, for only persons have names.)

Amen (from Hebrew meaning Yes, let it be so, I believe)

Could we make an effort to teach this prayer and use this prayer in our families? Used with holy water it re-

The Skylight Seamus Heaney

You were the one for skylights, I opposed Cutting into the seasoned tongue-and-groove
Of pitch pine. I liked it low and closed,
Its claustrophobic, nest-up-in-the-roof
Effect, I liked the snuff-dry feeling,
The perfect, trunk-lid fit of the old ceiling.
Under there, it was all hutch and hatch,
The blue slates kept the heat like midnight
thatch.

But when the slates came off, extravagant
Sky entered and held surprise wide open,
For days I felt like an inhabitant
Of that house where the man sick of the palsy
Was lowered through the roof, had his sins
forgiven,
Was healed, took up his bed and walked away.
