From THE PILGRIM

BY Sophie Jewett (1861-1909)

Pilgrim, pass, since it must be;
Take thy staff, and have thy will;
Prayer and love shall follow thee;
I will watch thee o'er the hill.
What thy fortune God doth know;
By what paths thy feet must go.
Far and dim the distance lies,
Yet my spirit prophesies:
Not in vigil lone and late,
Bowed upon the tropic sand,
But within the city gate,
In the struggle of the street,
Suddenly thine eyes shall meet
His whose look is Holy Land.

We would like to send our condolences to the family and friends of Esther Donohue Beloved wife of the late Bill from Killinarden who has died and whose funeral took place on Thursday

May Esther Rest in Peace.

Thoughts of the Day

“Keep your face towards the sunshine and shadow will fall behind you”

- Walt Whitman

Remember This

When you mind need peace, believe it

When your heart wants care, give it

When your body demands rest

Obey it.
