I SEE HIS BLOOD

By Joseph Mary Plunkett (1887-1916)

I see his blood upon the rose
And in the stars the glory of his eyes,
His body gleams amid eternal snows,
His tears fall from the skies.

I see his face in every flower;
The thunder and the singing of the birds
Are but his voice—and carved by his power
Rocks are his written words.

All pathways by his feet are worn,
His strong heart stirs the ever-beating sea,
His crown of thorns is twined with every thorn,
His cross is every tree.

Thoughts of the day

The struggle you're in today is developing the strength you need tomorrow.

The way I see it, if you want the rainbow, you got to put up with the rain.

Every day may not be good... but there's something good in every day.
