Small Kindness

By Danusha Lameris

I've been thinking about the way, when you walk down a crowded aisle, people pull in their legs to let you by. Or how strangers still say 'Bless you'

When someone sneezes, a leftover

From the Bubonic plague. 'Don't die,' we are saying

And sometimes, when you spill lemons

From your grocery bag, someone else will help you

Pick them up. Mostly, we don't want to harm each other.

We want to be handed our cup of coffee hot, and to say thank you to the person handing it. To smile at them and for them to smile back. For the waitress to call us honey when she sets down the bowl of clam chowder, and for the driver in the red pick-up truck to let us pass.

We have so little of each other, now. So far from tribe and fire. Only these brief moments of exchange.

What if they are the true dwelling of the holy, these

Fleeting temples we make together when we say, 'Here,

Have my seat,' Go ahead—you first,'

'I like your hat.'

We would like to send our condolences to the families and friends of the late

Rose Dempsey

Beloved wife of the late of Paddy whose funeral took place

On Tuesday the 21st July.

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE.
