The Lake Isle of Innisfree

By W.B. Yeats

I will arise now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there, of clay and waters made;
Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honey-bee,
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes Dropping slow,
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where
The cricket sings;
There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

We would like to send our condolences to the families and friends of the late

Robert Ryan

Beloved husband of Sarah

whose funeral took place

On Thursday 13th August

MAY HE REST IN PEACE.

Irish Proverbs and Sayings

Live in my heart and pay no rent.

If you love the mother you love the brood.

Love is blind to blemishes and faults.

Love is no impartial judge.

What is nearest the heart comes out.

Love conceals ugliness, and hate sees lots of faults.

Absence makes the heart grow fond.

Annual Parish Pilgrimage to Knock
